

ZYCUS PROJECT MANAGEMENT SOLUTION

The one-stop solution for procurement project management

ZYCUS™

AN APPEAL FOR BETTER PROJECT MANAGEMENT

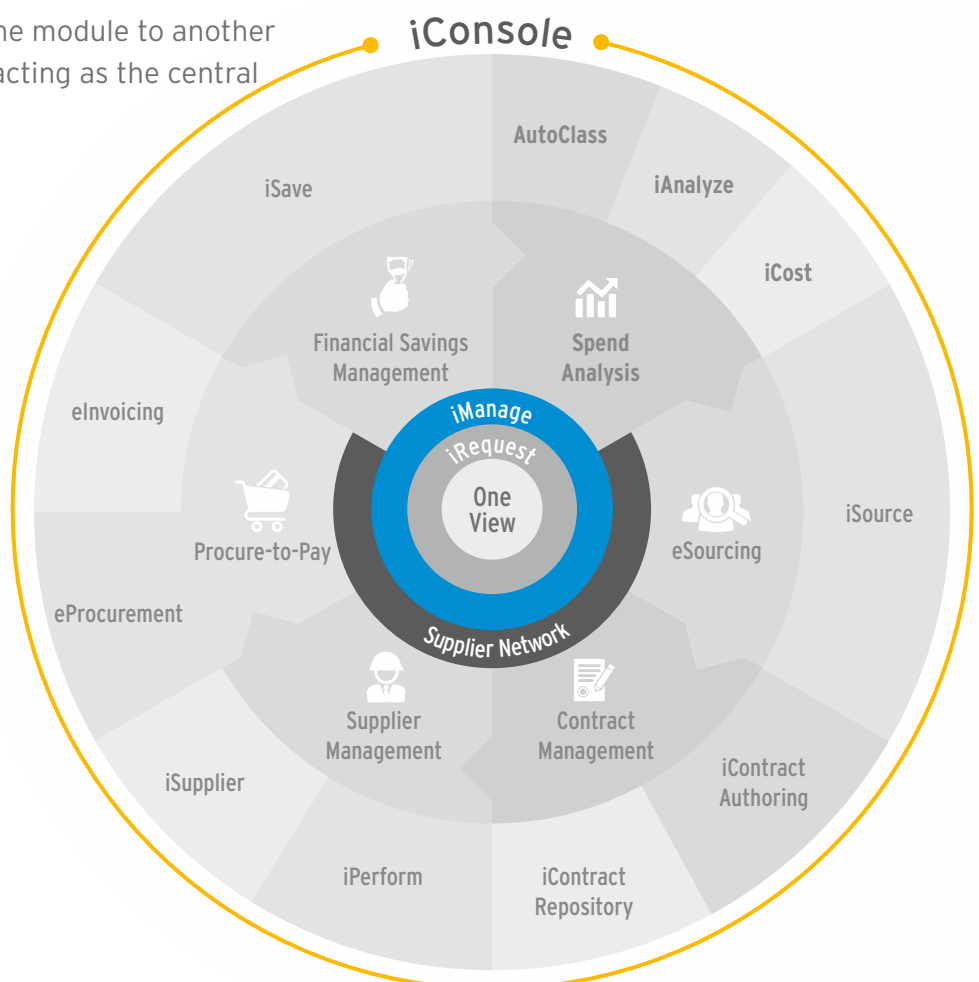

Billions of dollars are lost each year in the form of avoidable capital and operating costs, due to the failure of implementing best practices in procurement and project management. Companies failing to focus on procurement project management are challenged with undefined goals, inefficient tracking, project delays, lack of accountability, and a lack of transparency in decision making or similar factors. The multitude of such factors indicate both, the difficulty and the immense scope for improvement, a gap that can only be bridged with effective use of technology

PROJECT MANAGEMENT INNOVATION

Zycus iManage, a dedicated procurement project management solution, empowers users with high degree of on-screen configurability to facilitate superior project coherence through:

- Dynamic task tracking with graphical views of completion status
- Easy collaboration among global procurement team members through project journals
- Seamless data flow from one module to another with project management acting as the central workbench
