

A global automobile manufacturing firm revolutionizes invoice processing with Zycus Merlin AI suite

ABOUT COMPANY:

The organization is an automobile manufacturing giant that specializes in sports cars and other car categories. It has a strong presence in multiple markets across the globe with revenues above USD 23 billion.

Business Challenge:

The company, with an aim to improve its operations, participated in a time efficiency study to assess its procurement processes which helped identify main areas of challenges as follows:

- Long cycle times across various processes
- Manual tasks and lack of system connectivity
- Lack of transparency and compliance

One of the key challenges the company wished to overcome in order to improve its process efficiencies, was the invoice processing cycle time.

Zycus Solution:

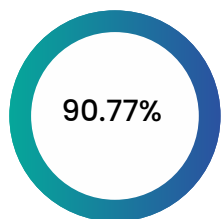

After successfully utilizing Zycus' source-to-pay suite to drive procurement transformation, the company is now leveraging the Zycus Merlin Invoice Reader to elevate efficiency levels in the process with Artificial Intelligence.

Business Impact:

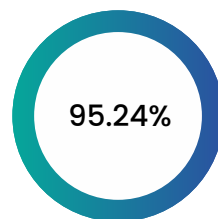

With the successful implementation of Zycus' Merlin AI, the company was able to achieve:

- Reduced cycle time for invoice processing
- Improved compliance
- Resource efficiencies
- Reduced errors due to lesser manual interventions

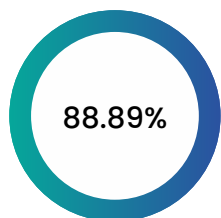

Data extraction accuracy metrics achieved by Zycus Invoice Reader:
